

● HOME OWNERS MEETING TUESDAY WILL ADDRESS AGAIN LAWN AREA REDESIGN

In an effort to achieve broader input and awareness, the HOA Board will present once again the details of a proposed redesign of the lawn areas in the complex.

Water conservation has become an issue of concern, particularly in western states. Lest the bounteous snowfall of last winter lulls us into a false sense of security, the Board believes we should examine carefully efforts to save water.

The plan designed by a Salt Lake City Landscape firm was presented in July with only three owners beyond the Board present. September's meeting is Tuesday the 19th.

Daryl Acor, HOA president, urges every owner to attend next Tuesday's meeting at 7 p.m. in the Club House. He said the significant costs of the proposal have now been obtained and must be considered against the level of water savings.

Large renderings of the plan will be on display to help owners understand and visualize what is being proposed. In addition, the cost/benefit information now available must be taken into account.

● DELL TYLER GRAVE SIDE SERVICES AT PROVO CEMETERY MONDAY AT 11 A.M.

Dell Tyler's death on Thursday, September 7, at his home came after several years of difficult physical challenges and four years following the death of his wife, JoAnn.

As a Provo contractor, Dell did most of the basement excavations here at Grandview Farm and provided all of the concrete walls in the complex. He and JoAnn came here to live in 1994 in one of the last two buildings completed at the Columbia Lane entrance.

Dell also served two terms as chair of the Condo Board. He was welcomed home by not only his wife, but many of the folks to whom he ministered here at the Farm over the years. He was serving as a branch president at the Missionary Training Center when the Tylers moved here.

● BREAKFAST WITH LARRY AND VALERIE SCHEDULED FOR FALL SOCIAL ON SAT., OCTOBER 7

If you are fairly new at Grandview Farm, you probably have no idea what kind of breakfast is produced by the Johnsons.

Take our word for it, Larry, who was a restaurant owner many years ago, knows how to put together a great breakfast for the Fall Condo Social. He has done it before!

The date is Saturday, October 7, starting at 8:30 a.m., at the Club House. Larry backs his flat bed trailer up to the south door, and the great smell and tasty food comes pouring in the door.

Judy Sandstrom, Condo Social Chair, and her committee promise good food and the opportunity for great conversation. Judy's helpers are Pat Lovell and Deanne Koecher

Put it on your calendar and set your alarms for an earlier Saturday morning on October 7.

Grave side services are planned Monday, Sept. 18, at 11 a.m. at the southeast corner of the Provo Cemetery. It is best to enter the cemetery from State St. on the east and turn left.

If you wish to send a card, Dell's daughter is Jode Porter, 1406 East 850 South, Provo, 84606

Temples and Rainbows in Utah Valley

Proposed Provo Temple

Payson Temple

Mt. Timpanogos Temple

Orem Temple

Saratoga Springs Temple

Provo City Temple

Lindon Temple

Four of these temples of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are in operation, two are nearing completion, and the new Provo Temple is still on the drawing boards.

There are many reasons why many of us love living in Utah Valley. One of them could well be the beauty of the sky above us. This natural phenomenon of a double rainbow was caught on camera by Bob Edmunds several weeks ago. Enjoy!
