RV Storage Area Guidelines: (Revised 8 April 2008)

1. Permanent storage in the RV parking area is for vehicles which belong to unit owners and residents of Grandview Farm Condominium
2. A visitor of a resident may park a vehicle for 72 hours in the RV parking if there is space available; or longer if approved by the Management Committee
3. The RV parking is available on a first come basis. If the capacity of the RV parking area is reached a unit owner with two or more vehicles will be asked to remove some of their vehicles.
4. Each owner or resident who uses the facility will be responsible for the insurance and security of their vehicle. All those using the facility will be responsible for locking the gates after leaving the area.
5. Space reservation and key issuance will be handled by the designated member of the Management Committee or an assigned individual. Keys are to be returned to the issuer when need for the key is ended.
6. When available space is filled, unit owners desiring space will be placed on a waiting list in the order in which requests are received.
7. The storage shed adjacent to the RV parking area is for the exclusive use of the Condominium Association.
